

New Student Online Enrollment

First you need to be going in to family access on a computer rather than a phone or you will not have the link for new student enrollment. Once you have logged in you will see a button on the top right that looks like the following:

In the new screen that will open you may see the following:

Click the plus sign and you will see the link for New Student Online Enrollment:

